

Washington Emergency Communications Coordination Working Group (WECCWG)

As your coordinating agency for Emergency Support Function (ESF) 2, the Washington Military Department invites all ESF 2 partners to attend the Spring 2018 WECCWG. We seek to strengthen partnerships, and enhance our emergency communications preparedness, reliability, and resiliency statewide. The theme for this meeting is integrating emergency communications in Catastrophic Planning.

WHEN:

MAY 10, 2018

8:00am - 5:00pm

WHERE:

Performing Arts & Event Center

Registration and continental breakfast reception open at 7:30am; meeting begins at 8:00am.

31510 Pete Von Reichbauer Way S.
Federal Way, WA 98003
Phone: 253-835-7010

HIGHLIGHTS & SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

- The Adjutant General of Washington
- Mayor of Federal Way
- EM Planning - City of Federal Way, King County, WA EMD
- FEMA, T-Mobile - Lessons learned, Puerto Rico
- National Guard Communications Catastrophic Planning
- WA EMD Critical Infrastructure Program Overview
- EPIS (Emergency Public Information System)

THANK YOU TO OUR SPONSOR FOR THIS EVENT:

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

All state, federal, local, tribal and private sector partners who support or manage emergency communications systems, communications service providers, Business continuity professionals and others that have a stake in the public communications infrastructure.

OVERNIGHT ACCOMODATIONS:

Government per-diem rates
Clarion Hotel, Reservations:
855-516-1090 (WECCWG block)
31611 Pete Von Reichbauer Way,
Federal Way, WA 98003

In order to ensure adequate seating and food service for continental breakfast and lunch

PLEASE RSVP: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/WECCWG6>

Agenda and more information on the WECCWG: <http://mil.wa.gov/WECCWG>

If you have any questions, contact Robin Campbell at 253-512-7174, or Robin.Campbell@mil.wa.gov