

COL Bryan J. Grenon

COL Bryan Grenon was born in El Paso, Texas. He grew up primarily in Tacoma, Washington, attending Washington High School in Parkland, WA. He attended Washington State University where he was awarded an Army ROTC Scholarship. Upon graduating in May of 1989, he was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Field Artillery. He joined the Washington Army National Guard in 1990. His assignments include Company Fire Support Officer, D Company, 3-161 Infantry; Platoon Leader, C Battery, 2-146 Field Artillery; Assistant Brigade FSO, 81st ABCT; Battalion S2, 2-146 Field Artillery; Battery Commander, A Battery 2-146 Field Artillery; Assistant S3, 2-146 Field Artillery; Operations Officer, 2-146 Field Artillery; Executive Officer, 2-146 Field Artillery; Fire Support Coordinator, 81st ABCT; Battalion Commander, 2-146 Field Artillery; Brigade Executive Officer, 96th Troop Command; and currently serves as the Deputy Brigade Commander for the 81st ABCT. COL Grenon has twice deployed with the 81st ABCT in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. His awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal; Meritorious Service Medal; Army Commendation Medal; Army Achievement Medal; Army Reserve Component Achievement Medal; National Defense Service Medal; Iraq Campaign Medal; GWOT Expeditionary Medal; Humanitarian Service Medal; Armed Forces Reserve Medal; Army Service Ribbon: Overseas Service Ribbon; Reserve Components Overseas Training Ribbon; Army Meritorious Unit Award; Army Superior Unit Award; and the Order of Saint Barbara, U.S. Army Field Artillery.

COL Grenon has Bachelor Degrees from Washington State University and Western Washington University. He also has a Master in Public Administration from the University of Washington and a Master in Strategic Studies from the US Army War College, Carlisle, PA.

COL Grenon is a Lieutenant with the Seattle Police Department and currently resides in Puyallup, Washington with his wife Monica and son Zachary. His daughter Ashley is a student at Washington State University.