Instructions

This Designation of Beneficiary Form is used to designate who is to receive a lump-sum payment which may become payable under the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS). It does not affect the right of any person who is eligible for survivor annuity benefits. This form may not be used and will not be effective in any way to elect, or demonstrate the intent to elect, a survivor annuity for a spouse, former spouse, or an individual who has an insurable interest in an employee. Do not confuse this form with designation forms used for other types of benefits: Standard Form 2808, Designation of Beneficiary - Civil Service Retirement System; Standard Form 2823, Designation of Beneficiary - Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Program; TSP-3, Federal Retirement Thrift Savings Plan Designation of Beneficiary; or Standard Form 1152, Designation of Beneficiary - Unpaid Compensation of Deceased Civilian Employee.

This form is only for employees and retirees under FERS. Employees and retirees under the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) must use Standard Form 2808, Designation of Beneficiary - Civil Service Retirement System. If you transferred from CSRS to FERS and previously filed an SF 2808, Designation of Beneficiary - Civil Service Retirement System, your SF 2808 is invalid. You must file a new designation using this form.

Important - The filing of this form will completely cancel any Designation of Beneficiary under FERS or CSRS (SF 3102 or SF 2808) you may have previously filed. Be sure to name in this form all persons you wish to designate as beneficiaries for FERS lump-sum death benefits, including lump sum payment of amounts you may have contributed to CSRS before becoming covered by FERS.

Order of Precedence

You do not need to make a designation if you are satisfied with the order of precedence that the law provides. That order of precedence follows:

1. To your widow or widower.
2. If your widow(er) is deceased, to your child or children, with the share of any deceased child distributed among the descendants of that child.
3. If none of the above, to your parents in equal shares or the entire amount to the surviving parent.
4. If none of the above, to the executor or administrator of your estate.
5. If none of the above, to your other next of kin under the laws of the State in which you live at the time of your death.

Payment of a lump sum will be made to the first person or persons listed above who are alive on the day you die.

Designating a Beneficiary

1. You can designate any person, firm, corporation, trust, or legal entity as your beneficiary.

If you want to designate a trust, see examples 4 and 5 on the back of Part 1. Those examples name a contingent beneficiary in case the trust is not valid. You don't have to name a contingent beneficiary unless you want to. If the trust is not valid, and you do not name a contingent beneficiary, OPM will pay according to the order listed under "Order of Precedence" above.

2. You can change your beneficiary at any time, without the knowledge or consent of a previous beneficiary, and this right cannot be waived or restricted.
3. A designation of beneficiary must be in writing, signed, and witnessed. If you are an employee, the designation must be received in your employing office prior to your death. If you are a separated employee, a retiree or a person receiving recurring payments from the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP), the designation must be received by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) prior to your death.
4. A witness to a designation of beneficiary is ineligible to receive payment as a beneficiary.
5. The person(s) named will be considered a beneficiary (beneficiaries) for both CSRS and FERS lump-sum benefits.

6. You cannot change or cancel a designation of beneficiary in a last will or testament unless it is signed, witnessed, and filed as described in paragraph 3.
7. A designation of beneficiary remains in effect until (1) you cancel it by filing a new designation, or (2) you receive a refund of your retirement deductions before retirement. To inform us if the name or address of a beneficiary changes, file a new designation of beneficiary. It may be important to file a new designation if your family situation changes.

Completing the Designation Form

1. The examples printed on the back of the first page of this form may be helpful to you in naming a beneficiary or canceling a prior designation of beneficiary.
2. If you designate more than one beneficiary, be sure that the shares to be paid to them add up to 100 percent.
3. Complete the form in duplicate. Type or print all entries except signatures. Do not use pencil.
4. Do not erase or alter entries.
