Washington Army National Guard Domestic Mission Support

Eleven core competencies, known as the “Essential 11”, are employed in support of civil authorities:

- 1. Command and Control
- 2. Engineering
- 3. Ground transportation
- 4. Medical Support
- 5. Logistics
- 6. Full-Scale CBRNE Operations
- 7. Communications
- 8. Aviation
- 9. Security
- 10. Maintenance
- 11. Cyber

Domestic Mission Support Employment Considerations

- Military Response is always in support of civil authorities
- Initiated by a request for assistance from a “civil authority”
- Provides personnel, equipment, facilities, material, and information to civilian authorities at all levels of government – Federal, State, and local
- Provided prior, during, and in the aftermath of an incident or potential incident
- Governor commands State Active Duty Forces

Domestic Mission Support Response Planning Factors

- Avoids competition with private enterprise
- Cost reimbursable basis – resource level is considerate of cost
- Title 32 (National Guard) may assist in law enforcement IAW applicable local laws and regulations.
- Title 10 may not generally perform law enforcement (Posse Comitatus Act).
- Legal vetting required - Rules for Use of Force and use of specialized equipment or intelligence capabilities
- Pre-Identifying accurate Military Capabilities in support of local agencies is an essential part of DSCA planning.
