SUMMARY OF DUTIES

This is a position within the 225th Support Squadron, Western Air Defense Sector (WADS). Applicants should have knowledge and experience with TO 00-33A-1001 General Cyberspace Support Activities Management Procedures and Practice Requirements. The Network Infrastructure work center performs maintenance on modern Local Area Network type Commercial-Off-The-Shelf (COTS) secure computer systems and networks. They are responsible for the daily operation, software, configuration modification and preventive maintenance inspections on all equipment including, but not limited to, network routers and switches, fiber and copper infrastructure, video teleconference, Battle Control System integrated systems, Joint Range Extension systems, Air Defense Systems Integrator, and Windows, UNIX and LINUX Servers and PC’s. Additional responsibilities include the configuring and daily operation of Cryptographic Equipment such as SKL, STEs, KIV-7s, KG-40s, KG-175Ds, KG-175Gs, and KG-250s.
The COTS equipment is repaired mainly through the removal and replacement of defective sub-assemblies. Member should be familiar with Windows and UNIX/LINUX based server-client models, basic PC repair, network fundamentals, OSI model, and routing/switching protocols. This position may at times entail CONUS, Alaska, or Hawaii short-duration TDYs in support of the WADS mission. Members of the work center will be considered for rotation through Mission Systems, Communication Focal Point, Plans and Resources, and Quality Assurance work centers, some of which necessitate rotating shifts in a 24/7 work environment. WA ANG policy requires initial AGR tours up to three years with potential for renewal at the end of current tour. Subsequent AGR tours are limited to a maximum of no more than four years.

ELEMENTS

The following elements are considered essential for successful performance in this position. Response to the Elements is voluntary, however written response to each of the following Elements will ensure that specialized experience is recognized.
