EWRG Preparedness Funds Recipients

Congratulations to Our 2024-2025 EWRG Preparedness Funds Recipients!

We are excited to announce the recipients of the 2024-2025 Extreme Weather Response Grant (EWRG) Preparedness Funds. The following awardees were selected based on their effective strategies for enhancing shelter readiness and serving vulnerable populations during extreme weather:

- Clark Regional Emergency Services Agency (CRESA)
- Snohomish County Human Services Department
- Lincoln County
- City of Puyallup & Co-Applicants
- Pacific County Emergency Management Agency
- Cowlitz County DEM
- Northeast Tri County Health District
- Pierce County Department of Emergency Management & Co-Applicants
- Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation
- City of Walla Walla
- Asotin County Department of Emergency Management
- Yakima County Human Services
- Town of Darrington
- Suquamish Tribe
- Adams County Emergency Management
- King County Office of Emergency Management & Co-Applicants

All applications underwent a thorough review by a panel using the scoring criteria outlined in the grant program plan. Applications were ranked based on project details, community impact, and alignment with program goals. Funding was awarded based on these scores and rankings.

Both selected and non-selected Preparedness Funds applicants are still eligible to apply for Response Funds, which reimburse costs incurred during an extreme weather event. Visit <https://mil.wa.gov/extreme-weather-grant-program> for more information on the Response Funds application process.
